Dear Friends,

What are we to do?

What are we to tell our children?

Are we living in the Book of Revelation?

If you listen to the news, it seems like we are. "But where sin increased, grace increased all the more, so that just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness to bring eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Romans 5:20 To quote Stellar Kart from a song called Innocent, "We live in a world that has no shame, We just tolerate what's wrong." It seems to me society has accepted sin with a capital "S."

Recent headlines by the Associated Press reported that gay couples rush to get married in California and Ellen DeGeneres is planning a dream wedding to marry her girlfriend. Time Magazine reported seventeen teenagers are pregnant at Gloucester High School. I ask you what type of message is this sending to our young people? In all the articles I've read about these seventeen girls, the most astonishing thing to me is that none of these girls have any regret or remorse for anything. Revelations 9:21 says, "Nor did they repent of their murders, their magic arts, their sexual immorality or their thefts." Is it any wonder that teen pregnancy is on the rise, and that girls ages 14-24 are the largest growing population of HIV? That is why wherever I speak to teenagers I tell them, "Life is about making good choices, Because making choices based on momentary feelings may have adverse results in the future." We all have made mistakes in our lives. We all need Jesus. For everyone has fall en short of the glory of God.

I asked you, "What can we do?" We must pray for our teenagers, our society, and our nation that God would pour out a spirit of repentance. He is a forgiving, loving and restoring God. I know that the God I serve will never turn anyone away, and though He hates the sin, He loves the sinner. There is plenty we can do!

We are ambassadors for Christ. 2Cor 5:20

We are the salt of the earth. Matt 5:13

We are to let our light shine before men. Matt 5:16
